

DISABILITY & EARLY ADULthood

Two free events • Oct. 29, at UD

Lunchtime Learning Noon - 1 p.m.

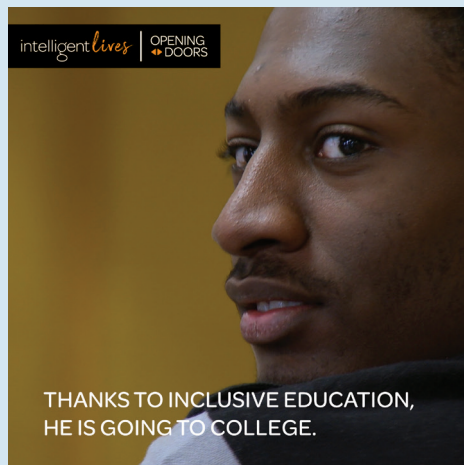

Center for Disabilities Studies • 461 Wyoming Rd., Newark

When a child with a disability transitions to adulthood, the entire family feels the change. Join us to hear a panel of parents of children with disabilities discuss how the transition to adulthood impacted their families. You'll learn what they gained from their experiences, and how their role in their child's life has shifted.

Disability Cinema 6:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Trabant Theatre • 17 W. Main St., Newark

Intelligent Lives stars three pioneering young American adults with intellectual disabilities who challenge perceptions of intelligence as they navigate high school, college and the workforce. A panel and audience discussion immediately follows the film.

Reserve your seat now!

Enroll at www.udel.edu/005260

or call Emily Curtin at 302-831-3632.

Please request any needed accommodations.

The screening of Intelligent Lives is made possible through the support of University of Delaware Library, Museums, & Press and Access:Ability Scholars.

Both events are presented in connection with CDS25, the 25-year anniversary of the University of Delaware's Center for Disabilities Studies.