

FREE LUNCHTIME LEARNING ZOOM WEBINAR

ACCESSING OUR PARKS

SEPTEMBER 29 • 12 p.m. - 1 p.m

Considering a visit to one of the National Park Service's more than 400 parks and monuments?

First need to know how well it would accommodate your visual, hearing, mobility or cognitive disability?

Join the National Park Service's accessibility chief at our Lunchtime Learning Zoom webinar on Sept. 29 at noon.

Jeremy Buzzell will let you know all about the Service's mission to make its parks and facilities accessible – and how that mission can lead to different accommodations at parks from Yosemite and Yellowstone to Independence National Historical Park in Philadelphia and the First State National Historical Park in Delaware.

Enroll today at https://udel.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_YtbhVTZ2R4eMhyjLgu5uZQ or contact Victor Schaffner at 302-831-3038.

Please request any needed accommodations.
Live captioning will be provided.

JEREMY BUZZELL
Branch Chief for the Accessibility
Management Program
National Park Service

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE
CENTER FOR DISABILITIES STUDIES